• Boston College and East Carolina square off in the 2021 Military Bowl on Monday, December 27 from Navy-Marine Corps Stadium in Annapolis, Md. Kickoff is scheduled for 2:30 p.m.

• The game will be broadcast nationally on ESPN. Brian Custer, Kelly Stouffer and Quint Kessenich have the television call of the game.

• Coverage on the Boston College Sports Network from Learfield begins at 2 p.m. with Jon Meterparel along with former BC standouts Pete Cronan and Scott Mutryn on the call.

• The Military Bowl will be the first meeting all-time between BC and East Carolina. The Pirates finished the season 7-5 overall and 5-3 in the American Athletic Conference.

• The Military Bowl marks the 29th bowl appearance in school history. The Eagles are 14-13 all-time in bowl games and BC's .519 winning percentage in bowl games ranks 39th all-time.

• The Military Bowl is a homecoming for 12 Eagles from Maryland, Virginia and Washington, D.C.

• Associate head coach Aazaar Abdul-Rahim is a native of Washington, D.C. and was a former head coach at Friendship Collegiate Academy in Washington, D.C.

• The Eagles' first postseason victory came in New Orleans at the 1941 Sugar Bowl ... the year before, Boston College fell, 6-3, to Clemson in the Cotton Bowl in its first bowl bid ... BC went undefeated in 11 games in 1940 and refused to let Tennessee tarnish its perfect season ... the 19-13 come-from-behind victory over a Volunteers squad that hadn't lost a regular-season game in three years catapulted Boston College football to its best-ever finish and a claim of the national championship ... in Doug Flutie's first full campaign as the Eagles' signal caller, he led BC to the 1982 Tangerine Bowl, BC's first taste of the postseason in 39 years ... Flutie propelled BC to a 45-28 1985 Cotton Bowl victory over Houston by throwing three touchdowns, leading the Eagles to their first postseason bowl win in 44 years ... BC began an eight-game bowl winning streak in 2000 at the Jeep Aloha Bowl in Honolulu, Hawaii, with a 31-17 win over Arizona State ... the Eagles went on a post-season tear: winning eight bowl games in a row: 2001 Music City Bowl (BC 20, No. 16 Georgia 16); 2002 Motor City Bowl (BC 51, Toledo 25); 2003 San Francisco Bowl (BC 35, Colorado State 21); 2004 Continental Tire Bowl (BC 37, North Carolina 24); 2005 MPC Computers Bowl (BC 27, Boise State 21); 2006 Meineke Car Care Bowl (BC 25, Navy 24); 2007 Champs Sports Bowl (BC 24, Michigan State 21) ... the final win of the eight-year postseason streak came in Orlando, Fla., at the Champs Sports Bowl ... in a fitting end to his brilliant collegiate career, Matt Ryan led the Eagles to a three-point victory over Michigan State ... Ryan completed 22-of-47 attempts for 249 yards and three touchdowns as the Eagles kept the nation's longest bowl game win streak alive with a 24-21 victory ... BC captured its first bowl win since 2007 with a 36-30 victory over Maryland in the 2016 Quick Lane Bowl ... BC's bowl game in 2018 against Boise State was ruled a no-contest due to inclement weather.

Jeff Hafley was introduced as The Gregory P. Barber '69 and Family Head Coach of the Boston College football program on Dec. 14, 2019. In his first season on the Heights, Hafley finished with the most victories of any first-year Power Five head coach in college football in 2020.

The 36th head coach in Boston College history, Hafley led BC to a 6-5 season that included near upsets of No. 1 Clemson and No. 11 North Carolina.

More impressive than the marked improvement on both sides of the ball from Boston College in 2020 was how the program handled playing in the COVID-19 pandemic. BC's team had just one positive COVID-19 result in over 9,000 administered tests since the team returned to campus last June.

On the recruiting trail, Hafley and his staff signed the top recruiting class in school history in his first season. The recruiting class ranking by ESPN was the best in school history since their rankings began in 2006. It was BC's best showing in the 247 Sports rankings as well and the Eagles' highest Rivals ranking since 2008.

Hafley, one of college football's top defensive minds, helped improve a BC defense 52 spots in the national rankings in total defense as the Eagles allowed 62 fewer yards per game than the previous year prior to his arrival.

Nine Eagles were named All-ACC in 2020, including the first wide receiver to be named All-ACC First-Team in Zay Flowers since 2012. Tight end Hunter Long was named a Second Team All-American by multiple outlets as he led all tight ends nationally in receptions and finished the year second in receptions.

Isaiah McDuffie ranked fifth nationally in total tackles while Max Richardson ended the season 11th as Boston College was one of two schools in the entire country with two players finishing in the top 11 in tackles.

Prior to taking over as head coach at Boston College, Hafley led a dramatic turnaround in leading the defense for Ohio State as the Buckeyes won the 2019 Big Ten championship and qualified for the College Football Playoff.

A finalist for the Frank Broyles Award and the 247Sports Defensive Coordinator of the Year, Hafley was one of the architects of a Buckeye defense that ranks first nationally in yards per play (3.9), second nationally in total defense (247.6 yards per game), third nationally in scoring defense (12.5 points per game), third nationally in sacks (3.92 per game), seventh nationally in rushing defense (99.5 yards per game), second nationally in passing yards allowed (148.1 yards per game) and first nationally in red zone defense (64.2%).

Hafley's first season in Columbus saw Ohio State jump from 72nd nationally in 2018 to first nationally in 2019 in yards per play.

A standout defensive backs coach throughout his career in the NFL and collegiate ranks, Hafley's work as the defensive backs coach at Ohio State led to impressive results. The Buckeyes totaled 15 interceptions in 2019, tied for ninth nationally, while allowing just 25 pass plays of 20+ yards.

Before arriving at Ohio State, Hafley spent the previous seven seasons in the NFL and most recently three seasons with the San Francisco 49ers as defensive backs coach.

Prior to his time with San Francisco, Hafley was the secondary coach for two seasons in Cleveland, the secondary/safeties coach with Tampa Bay in 2013 and a defensive backs assistant with the Buccaneers in 2012.

Hafley, who coached his 20th season in 2020, has extensive ties as an elite recruiter during his coaching stops at Pittsburgh and Rutgers. A native of Montvale, N.J., Hafley played four seasons as a wide receiver at Siena College from 1997-2000, graduating cum laude in 2001 with a degree in history.

He earned his master's degree from Albany in 2003.

His coaching career includes 11 seasons in collegiate football before a move to the NFL in 2012, and then seven subsequent seasons there. After starting his career working as running backs coach for one season (2001) at Worcester (Mass.) Polytechnic Institute, Hafley moved on to the University of Albany for four seasons as defensive assistant and defensive backs coach (2002-05).

He then coached at the University of Pittsburgh for five seasons (2006-10) where he worked under the direction of Dave Wannstedt and helped mentor Darrelle Revis into a Jim Thorpe Award finalist in 2006.

Hafley was a defensive assistant/cornerbacks coach in 2006-07 and was secondary coach from 2008-10.

One season as the defensive backs coach at Rutgers, working under Greg Schiano, followed his positions at Pittsburgh. The Scarlet Knights ranked ninth nationally in passing defense in his one season there, 2011. Hafley helped develop future NFL standout defensive backs Duron Harmon and Logan Ryan during his time in Piscataway.

Hafley moved on to the NFL following his year at Rutgers and coached two seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, serving as an assistant defensive backs coach in 2012 and secondary/safeties coach in 2013.

Two seasons with the Cleveland Browns, under coach Mike Pettine, followed. In 2014, his second season with the Browns, the team led the NFL in opponent passer rating (74.1), opponent completion percentage (57.1) and in passes defended with 99, plus ranked second in the league with 21 interceptions.

Three seasons as defensive backs coach with the San Francisco 49ers - 2016, 2017 and 2018 - preceded Hafley's position with the Buckeyes. He worked under Chip Kelly in 2016 and under Kyle Shanahan the past two seasons. In 2018, the 49ers ranked 11th in the league in passing defense. They were 14th in 2016 after ranking 27th in 2015, the year before Hafley arrived.

Hafley and his wife, Gina, have two daughters, Hope and Leah.

BC-ECU Connections

- Boston College and East Carolina meet for the first time on the gridiron in the Military Bowl on December 27, but there are several connections between the two schools.
- Former BC head coach Jeff Jagodzinski (2007-08) spent time at East Carolina as the tight ends coach from 1989-91 and the Pirates' offensive line coach from 1992-96.
- Former BC offensive coordinator Steve Logan (2007-08) was the Pirates' head coach from 1992-02.
- Boston College offensive coordinator Frank Cignetti was the quarterbacks coach in 2000-01 for New Orleans and coached former ECU Hall of Fame QB Jeff Blake. The Saints were NFC West champions for the first time in team history that season as Blake finished with the best passer rating of his career (82.7) under Cignetti.
- Dominique Davis redshirted at Boston College in 2007, lettered for the Eagles and played in six games in 2008 before transferring. Davis finished his collegiate career at East Carolina, playing for the Pirates in 2010 and 2011. Davis is sixth in ECU history with 7,192 career passing yards.

On This Date

- Boston College is 0-2 all-time on games played on Dec. 27.
- Both losses came in the Pinstripe Bowl on this date. The Eagles dropped a 31-30 overtime heartbreaker to Penn State in 2014 at Yankee Stadium.
- The last time BC played on Dec. 27; the Eagles lost 27-20 to Iowa at Yankee Stadium in the 2017 Pinstripe Bowl.
- BC is 26-17 all-time in games played during the month of December.

QB1 Returning for 2022

- Boston College junior quarterback Phil Jurkovec announced on Dec. 6 that he will return for his senior season in 2022 and not enter the upcoming NFL Draft.
- Jurkovec returned from a right wrist injury suffered at UMass on Sept. 11 to make his third start of the season against Virginia Tech on Nov. 5. He was cleared to return to practice on Friday, Oct. 29 and practiced with the team for the first time in team situations on Monday, Nov. 4.
- BC is 4-2 with Jurkovec as the starting quarterback in 2021 and 10-6 over his career at the Heights.
- He was named the ACC QB of the Week, Pro Football Focus National QB of the Week and one of eight Manning Award "Stars of the Week" for his efforts in the Georgia Tech win.
- In 16 games, Jurkovec is already fifth in school history with six 300-yard passing games. BC legends Matt Ryan and Doug Flutie hold the school record with 12, 300-yard passing games.
- He was the starter in all 10 games he played in at quarterback last year for the Eagles. His 2,558 passing yards over his first 10 starts were the most by any BC quarterback in school history.
- In 2020, Jurkovec was the first player in BC history to total four, 300-yard passing games in his first five career starts at quarterback and the first BC quarterback with four or more 300-yard games in a season since Matt Ryan (2007).

- The Pittsburgh native finished last season 26th nationally with 255.8 passing yards per game and ended the season completing 61 percent of his passes and throwing 17 touchdown passes (30th nationally). He was second among all Boston College quarterbacks since 1996 with 255.8 yards per game, trailing only Matt Ryan's 321.9 yards per game in 2007.

Lindstrom Named Finalist For the Rimington Trophy

- The Rimington Trophy Committee announced its 2021 finalists for the most outstanding center in college football.
- Alec Lindstrom became the first Boston College player in school history to be named a finalist for the award, joining Iowa's Tyler Linderbaum and Olusegun Oluwatimi of Virginia as the three finalists for the prestigious honor.
- Lindstrom repeated as the ACC's top center for the second straight season, becoming the first BC center to be named to the All-ACC first team two times. Lindstrom has the No. 3 pass blocking grade in the country at center (84.6) according to Pro Football Focus and allowed just one sack and two quarterback hits in 2021. He is rated the No. 5 center for the 2022 NFL Draft by ESPN's Todd McShay.
- Lindstrom joined Matt Ryan (2006, 2007), Luke Kuechly (2009, 2010, 2011), Anthony Castonzo (2009, 2010) and AJ Dillon (2017, 2018, 2019) as the only multiple All-ACC first-team selections from Boston College.

Flowers in Full Bloom

- Junior wide receiver Zay Flowers has etched his name in the BC record book in several categories in just three seasons at the Heights.
- Flowers is fifth in BC history in career touchdown receptions (17), 10th in school history in receiving yards (1,979) and 12th in Boston College all-time in receptions (122).
- His next touchdown reception will move him into a tie for fourth place in BC history with current running backs coach Rich Gunnell.
- Flowers is 21 yards away from joining the 2,000-yard receiving club at Boston College. He would be the 10th player in school history to reach the 2,000-yard mark.
- He needs 12 receptions to join the top 10 in school history for career receptions as well.
- Flowers was named to the All-ACC third team at wide receiver after leading the Eagles in receiving. Flowers was ranked in the Top 10 in the ACC in receiving yards (746) in 2021, despite missing BC's No. 1 quarterback for six games. It marked the second time in Flowers' career he collected All-ACC honors after being named to the All-ACC first team in 2020.

One for the Ages

- Phil Jurkovec averaged 23.9 yards per completion in the 41-30 win at Georgia Tech. That was the best yards per completion total by a BC quarterback since at least 1996 when throwing for 300+ yards in a game.
- It was the fourth best total by an ACC quarterback as well since 1996.

ACC QBs since '96 (300+ yards; YPC Leaders)

Chris Rix (FSU) vs. Va. Tech, 11/1/02: 12-of-25, 326 yards, 27.17 YPC

Phil Jurkovec at Georgia Tech (11/13/2021) 13-of-20 passing, 310 yards, 2 TDs; 8 rushes, 71 yards, 3 TDs

• Jurkovec is the only player in BC history to throw for two scores and run for two scores in the first half of an ACC game. The Eagles joined the ACC in 2005.

• Jurkovec became the sixth Eagle since 1996 to account for five touchdowns in a game (two passing, three rushing). It was the first five-touchdown performance by a BC quarterback since Anthony Brown versus Wake Forest in 2018.

500 Club

- Boston College finished the day with 525 total yards in the 51-0 win over Colgate and 505 total yards in the Georgia Tech victory - the 36th and 37th time since 1996 that BC gained 500+ yards from scrimmage. BC is 30-7 in those games.
- The 525 yards of offense vs. Colgate were the most in the Jeff Hafley era for the Eagles.
- The six touchdowns from scrimmage were also the most of any game coached by Hafley at BC in the win over the Raiders.
- BC averaged 9.9 yards per touch in the Georgia Tech victory - tied for the best output of any Jeff Hafley team in Chestnut Hill.
- Six times since 1996 BC has finished with 9.9 yards per play or better in a game - two of them have occurred in the last two seasons (9.9 also last season at Virginia).

300-Yard Passing Games

- Boston College totaled just seven 300-yard passing games from 2010-19, including just three games of 300+ passing yards since 2013.
- In 23 games under Jeff Hafley, BC has posted eight 300-yard passing games.

California Kid

- True freshman QB Emmett Morehead made his collegiate debut for Boston College at the 14:49 mark in the second quarter at Syracuse on Oct. 30.
- His first completion was a 44-yard pass to Zay Flowers on third down. Morehead finished the day 6-of-15 passing for 87 yards.
- The Woodside, Calif. native, played in his first game since his junior season in high school in 2019 against the Orange. His high school did not play in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Phil The Thrill

- In 16 games, Boston College quarterback Phil Jurkovec is already fifth in school history with six 300-yard passing games.
- BC legends Matt Ryan and Doug Flutie hold the school record with 12, 300-yard passing games.

Class of 2020

- A total of 24 coaches were hired in the 2020 coaching cycle. BC's Jeff Hafley is tied for second among all Power Five head coaches with 12 victories (Mel Tucker, Michigan State). He is sixth overall with the 12 wins since 2020.

Of Note

- Jeff Hafley was introduced as BC's 36th head coach on Dec. 14, 2019. In his first season on the Heights, Hafley finished with the most victories of any first-year Power Five head coach in college football in 2020.
- BC finished with a 6-5 record, and qualified for a bowl game, though the program ultimately declined to participate. More impressive than the marked improvement on both sides of the ball, was how the program under Hafley's leadership handled playing in the COVID-19 pandemic. BC Football had just one positive from over 9,000 administered COVID-19 tests since the team returned to campus last June.
- On the recruiting trail, Hafley and his staff signed the top recruiting class in school history in his first season. The recruiting class ranking by ESPN was the best in school history since their rankings began in 2006. It was BC's best showing in the 247 Sports rankings as well and the Eagles' highest Rivals ranking since 2008.
- Hafley, one of college football's top defensive minds, helped improve a BC defense 52 spots in the national rankings in total defense as the Eagles allowed 62 fewer yards per game than the previous year prior to his arrival.
- Nine Eagles were named All-ACC in 2020, including the first wide receiver to be named All-ACC first-team in Zay Flowers since 2012. Six of the nine All-ACC performers return for BC in 2021 (WR Zay Flowers, C Alec Lindstrom, OL Zion Johnson, OL Ben Petrula, OL Tyler Vrabel, DB Josh DeBerry).
- BC returned 20 starters in 2021, including all five offensive linemen. BC returns nine starters total on offense, eight on defense and three specialists. The Eagles welcome back a total of 45 letterwinners from the 2020 squad.
- BC was 24th nationally in passing offense in 2020, averaging 284.2 yards per game.
- First-year starter Phil Jurkovec burst onto the scene as the starting quarterback for the Eagles last season. Jurkovec's 2,558 yards over his first 10 starts were the most by any BC quarterback in school history.
- Jurkovec was the first player in BC history to total four, 300-yard passing games in his first five career starts at quarterback and the first BC quarterback with four or more 300-yard games in a season since Matt Ryan (2007).

He finished 18th nationally and second in the ACC with 892 yards receiving, ranked 26th nationally with 56 receptions and tied for 12th nationally with nine touchdown receptions.

- Flowers became the first BC player with three receiving touchdowns in a game since Kelvin Martin at Holy Cross (11/22/86).
- He tied the school record with five other players with three touchdown receptions.
- The 166 yards receiving by Flowers were the fifth-most by a BC player since 1996.
- Flowers' 77-yard score was the first of 70 or more by an Eagle since Hunter Long's

- Flowers totaled five receptions for a career-high 162 yards and a touchdown in BC's 26-6 win at Duke. It was the first 100-yard receiving game for an Eagle since Kobay White's 121 yards at Florida State in 2018.

- Flowers was named the ACC Wide Receiver of the Week for the first time in his career following the Duke game. He became the only BC wide receiver to ever be named the ACC's WR of the Week for the second time in a season after his performance in the Pitt win.

Jurkovec's 3 TD passes carries BC past Colgate, 51-0

BOSTON (AP) – Boston College quarterback Phil Jurkovec is now on the radar screen with much higher expectations on him in his second season with the Eagles.

Jurkovec threw for three touchdowns and 303 yards in a little over three quarters, leading BC to a 51-0 victory over Colgate on Saturday in the season opener for both schools.

Jurkovec, a 6-foot-5 redshirt junior who transferred from Notre Dame before last season, completed 16 of 24 passes with no interceptions. Last season, he threw for 2,558 yards, the most ever by a BC quarterback in his first 10 games.

"Just the expectations on Phil going in, everybody's been talking about him now," BC's Jeff Hafley said. "Now the pressure's on him. The way he handled this today says a lot about him."

He responded with his fifth career 300-yard game.

BC posted its first season-opening shutout since beating Northeastern 54-0 in 2009.

Travis Levy had a 3-yard scoring run, and Jahmin Muse added a 22-yard INT return for a TD.

Leading 7-0, Jurkovec hit 6-6 tight end Trae Barry, a graduate transfer from Jacksonville State, deep down the left sideline. Barry hurdled over defensive back Keshawn Dancy near the 5-yard line before taking it into the end zone for a 51-yard score.

On the next possession, Jurkovec threw a deep pass over the middle to Zay Flowers, who made a leaping grab in the end zone between two defenders for a 39-yard TD.

Jurkovec capped a nine-play, 89-yard march on the final drive of the half by leaving a 10-yard scoring pass to true freshman Jaden Williams. He ran for 43 yards around the left end on his last drive of the day, setting up Pat Garwo's 2-yard TD run early in the fourth.

It was the first-ever meeting between the schools.

Grosel comes on the help BC complete 45-28 win

AMHERST, Mass. (AP) – Dennis Grosel replaced injured starter Phil Jurkovec in the first half and passed for 199 yards, ran for a touchdown and passed for another and Boston College beat UMass 45-28 on Saturday.

Pat Garwo ran for 160 yards on 15 carries for the Eagles (2-0), who won their 11th straight against UMass.

Travis Levy ran 20 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter and returned a kickoff 96 yards for a touchdown in the fourth. Jaiden Woodbey scooped up a fumble on a punt return, taking it 41 yards for a touchdown that put the Eagles up 34-14 with 3:04 left in the third quarter.

Grosel completed 11 of 14 passes after taking over for Jurkovec, who was taken to the locker room late in the first quarter with an undisclosed injury. Although BC officials said he was "questionable" at halftime he didn't return.

Coach Jeff Hafley said after the game that Jurkovec's injury involved the wrist and hand of his throwing arm, but wasn't sure how bad it was.

Jurkovec completed 3 of 4 passes for 22 yards. A redshirt junior who transferred from Notre Dame before last season, he was the ACC co-quarterback of the week after throwing for 303 yards and three touchdowns in a little more than three quarters in a 51-0 victory over FCS Colgate in the season opener.

Brady Olson completed 14 of 29 passes for 214 yards and three touchdowns for the Minutemen (0-2), who trailed 14-0 at halftime but responded with three touchdowns in the third quarter.

Olson also threw a pair of interceptions as BC took advantage of three turnovers by UMass; none bigger than Eric Collins' costly fumble on a punt return late in the third quarter. Collins got as far as his own 41 before getting hit hard by Vinny DePalma, causing the ball to pop out and right to Woodbey, who took it all the way to the end zone.

Boston College goes to 3-0 with 28-3 win over Temple

PHILADELPHIA (AP) – A whole lot of defense and a little bit of a pounding running game kept Boston College undefeated as its non-conference schedule winds down

Pat Garwo, Travis Levy and Dennis Grosel scored rushing touchdowns and Boston College cruised to a 28-3 victory over Temple on Saturday.

Grosel – who stepped into the quarterback spot following the injury to starter Phil Jurkovec during last week's win over UMass – also added a touchdown pass to Jaden Williams.

The Eagles defense recorded four sacks of Owls quarterback Justin Lynch, who was under constant pressure the entire afternoon. Boston College was especially effective on 3rd down, where they held Temple to 3-for-14 overall.

Boston College (3-0) set the tone for the game with Levy's 66 yard return of the opening kickoff just inside the Temple 30. Two plays later, Grosel found Williams on a slant in the end zone for a 19-yard touchdown pass.

That would be the highlight of the passing game for Grosel, who completed only 5 of 13 passes for 34 yards with an interception during his first start. However, the Eagles running game piled up 190 yards on 33 carries with Garwo, Grosel and Zay Flowers all rushing for over 45 yards.

Garwo would dive through a hole in the middle of the Owls defense from 1 yard late in the first quarter while Grosel capped off the scoring on a quarterback sneak on fourth and goal from the 1 midway through the fourth quarter. Levy's one-yard score came late in the second quarter to pad the lead to 21-0.

That's all the offense that the Eagles would need on the afternoon, as the Boston College defense kept taking advantage of some gaps within Temple's offensive line. The Owls had five three-and-out drives and turned the ball over on downs on three other occasions.

BC beats Mizzou in OT on Flowers catch, Sebastian INT

BOSTON (AP) – Denis Grosel threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Zay Flowers in overtime, and Brandon Sebastian's interception sealed the victory on Saturday as Boston College recovered after blowing two fourth-quarter leads to beat Missouri 41-34.

BC coach Jeff Hafley said he couldn't see Sebastian come down with the ball to end the game. But he figured it out when the fans came streaming onto the field to celebrate the first-ever meeting between the schools, and the Eagles' first 4-0 start since Matt Ryan led them to eight straight wins to start the 2007 season.

Travis Levy scored from 5-yards out to give BC a 34-31 lead with 25 seconds to play in the fourth, bouncing off one defender at the 1 and scampering in. But Connor Bazelak led the Tigers (2-2) to the Eagles' 39 and Harrison Mevis barely cleared the crossbar with a 56-yard field goal as time expired in regulation.

BC had the ball first in overtime and advanced to the 9 on a third-down pass to Levy. After Levy was stopped for a loss of 1, Grosel found Flowers open on the left side of the end zone.

Bazelak went for the score on the Tigers' first play, but Sebastian leaped in front of the receiver at the goal line and came down with the ball to end it.

Pat Garwo ran for 175 yards and two touchdowns, including a 67-yard score in the first quarter. Grosel threw for 175 yards and two scores; he also ran nine times for 35 yards to help BC convert on 11 of 17 third-down attempts and both times it went for it on fourth.

BC led 27-17 to start the fourth quarter, but the Tigers went ahead 31-27 on Badie's second TD, an 8-yard run. The Eagles started at their own 40 after Missouri committed a personal foul on the ensuing kickoff – which went for a touchback anyway.

Grosel led them on a 15-play scoring drive that ate 5:53 off the clock and left the Tigers just 25 seconds. Bazelak completed a 19-yard pass to Barrett Banister and a 12-yarder to Keke Chism before their final timeout at the BC 44 with 6 seconds left.

No. 25 Clemson escapes Boston College with 19-13 victory

CLEMSON, S.C. (AP) – Clemson defensive end K.J. Henry wasn't too worried as Boston College moved downfield in the final minute. Henry's belief was rewarded as he pounced on a mishandled snap by quarterback Dennis Grosel with 47 seconds left to preserve the Tigers' latest escape, 19-13 at home Saturday night.

B.T. Potter had four field goals, hitting a tiebreaking 35-yarder late in the third quarter for the 25th ranked Tigers (3-2, 2-1 Atlantic Coast Conference).

Clemson has won 31 straight at home despite the suddenly stagnant offense held to a first-quarter touchdown. They have won 11 in a row over Boston College (4-1, 0-1).

The Eagles were among the ACC's surprise teams with their first 4-0 start in 14 years. They just couldn't make much happen against the Clemson defense.

When BC's Nate Okpala blocked a punt in Clemson territory early in the third quarter, the responded with a three-and-out. In the fourth quarter, the Eagles drove to the Clemson 43. But Grosel bobbled the snap on third down and lost 16 yards.

And then came that final mistake as they drove for the go-ahead touchdown. Grosel said he tried to hurry up and snap and was looking the play clock when the ball came at him. "I took my eye off it for a second," said Grosel, who passed for 311 yards and two interceptions.

Kobe Pace broke off a 59-yard TD run – Clemson's longest play of the season. The Tigers drove inside the Boston College 25 twice more in the opening half, once to the 2. But had to settle for Potter's field goals both times.

The offense's struggles weren't helped by the early departures of two of their three leading receivers. Receiver Justyn Ross, the leader with 22 catches coming in, was walked to the locker room in the second half. Swinney said Ross took a shot to the head and they shut him down.

No. 22 North Carolina State beats Boston College 33-7

BOSTON (AP) – Thayer Thomas knew the pass wasn't intended for him. Then he realized he had a chance to catch it.

"On that play I'm not even a viable option," Thomas said after his leaping catch from Devin Leary on a broken play led to a 79-yard touchdown that helped No. 22 North Carolina State beat Boston College 33-7 on Saturday night.

The game was tied 7-7 with just seconds left in the first half when the Wolfpack ran their kicking unit out to squeeze in a 27-yard field goal before time expired. They then added three touchdowns in the third quarter – two of them off back-to-back BC turnovers – to turn a tie game into a 31-7 blowout.

N.C. State added a safety in the final four minutes to seal its third straight victory. Coach Dave Doeren said he hopes it sends a message to those who doubt whether the Wolfpack (5-1, 2-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) are for real.

Leary threw for 251 yards and three touchdowns, also completing a 40-yard scoring pass on the opening drive on a throw that bounced off the back of the defender before Devin Carter gathered it in.

The Wolfpack made it 17-10 when BC punter Grant Carlson muffed the snap after the Eagles' opening possession of the second half, and Devan Boykin picked up the ball and ran in from 34 yards out. After Isaiah Moore intercepted Dennis Grosel on a pass that bounced off the receiver's hands, Leary hit Dylan Parham from 4 yards out.

"The 14 points, like that," BC coach Jeff Hefley said, snapping his fingers, "we just couldn't recover from. We were down at that point 24-7, and just felt like a little bit too much at that time."

Grosel completed 21 of 39 passes for 194 yards for the Eagles (4-2, 0-2), who have lost back-to-back games against ranked teams since opening the season with four straight wins.

Cunningham rushes for 3 Tds, Louisville tops BC

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) – Malik Cunningham rushed for three touchdowns, including a 14-yard clinching run with 2:53 remaining to cap a milestone performance, and Louisville overcame four turnovers to beat Boston College 28-14 on Saturday and snap a two-game losing streak.

Seeking a rebound coming out of a bye following consecutive losses by four total points, the Cardinals (4-3, 2-2 ACC) followed a BC touchdown with 21 unanswered points to take control before halftime, or so it seemed. They thwarted chances to pad their lead as Cunningham tossed two interceptions and Hassan Hall fumbled in between their TDs.

Even after Josh Minkins picked off BC's Dennis Grosel in the end zone midway through the fourth quarter to stop one serious threat, Louisville freshman back Trevion Cooley coughed it back up on the next play to set up the Eagles at the Louisville 30. BC took advantage on Jaelen Gill's 6-yard TD reception to get within 21-14 and make it interesting before Cunningham's run sealed a rain-soaked homecoming win.

Cunningham reached 2,000 career yards rushing and became the fifth Louisville player with at least 30 rushing TDs on a drive capped by his 1-yard run midway through the second quarter. Cunningham rushed 16 times for 133 yards, completed 9 of 17 passes for 107 yards and credited teammates for his success.

Cooley carried 13 times for 112 yards as Louisville rushed for a season-high 331 yards, the most since 2019 against Syracuse.

Grosel completed 17 of 32 passes for 141 yards and a TD, but threw two interceptions in his first start as Boston College (4-3, 0-3) dropped its third consecutive game. Alec Sinkfield's 11-yard TD run midway through the first briefly put BC up 7-0 before Cunningham took his time to look for receivers before sprinting left for a 10-yard, game-tying score.

Louisville outgained BC 438-266, but Eagles coach Jeff Hafley lamented his team failing to take advantage of turnovers.

Syracuse uses third-quarter blitz, beats Boston College

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) – It was a slog for the Syracuse offense in the first half. Four false starts. Zero points. Just six first downs and 118 yards.

Then Sean Tucker, the nation's leading rusher, broke one up the middle for a 51-yard score midway through the third quarter Saturday and Syracuse (5-4, 2-3 Atlantic Coast Conference) was on the way to a 21-6 win over longtime rival Boston College (4-4, 0-4 ACC).

The Orange's second straight victory left them on the cusp of bowl eligibility.

Quarterback Garrett Shrader scored on a long run shortly after Tucker's burst – a 48-yarder down the left sideline – and Courtney Jackson ran back a line drive punt 66 yards for another touchdown, part of a three-touchdown blitz in a five-minute span to overcome a 6-0 BC lead.

The loss was the fourth straight for the Eagles.

"We missed their two runs, missed two tackles," BC coach Jeff Hafley said. "Didn't do what we were doing in the first half."

The Orange head into a long-awaited bye week just one win from qualifying for the post-season.

Both teams struggled on offense in the first half. Connor Lytton's 31-yard field goal at the start of the second quarter was all both teams could manage in the first 30 minutes.

Grosel and Morehead, a true freshman seeing the first action of his career, combined to go 15-of-32 passing for 180 yards.

Jurkovec accounts for 5 TDs, Eagles drop Georgia Tech

ATLANTA (AP) – Phil Jurkovec appears to have found more speed when he missed six games for Boston College with a wrist injury.

Jurkovec accounted for five touchdowns – running for three and passing for two – and the Eagles beat Georgia Tech 41-30 on Saturday to become bowl-eligible.

Boston College (6-4, 2-4 Atlantic Coast Conference) has followed a four-game losing streak with back-to-back wins following Jurkovec's return from a right wrist injury. Jurkovec ran for 71 yards, including scoring runs of 8, 14 and 31 yards. He completed 13 of 20 passes for 310 yards.

Georgia Tech led 21-7 before Boston College scored three consecutive touchdowns to reclaim the lead. Jahmyr Gibbs, who had a 98-yard kickoff return for the Yellow Jackets' first touchdown, scored on a 4-yard run with 8:59 remaining, cutting Boston College's lead to 31-30. Brent Cimaglia's potential tying extra point was no good, bouncing off the right upright, preserving the Eagles' lead.

The missed extra point set up Boston College's long scoring drive capped by Jurkovec's 31-yard scoring run.

Georgia Tech (3-7, 2-6) has lost four consecutive games. It closes its season against No. 7 Notre Dame and No. 1 Georgia. The Yellow Jackets will need an upset win to avoid a third consecutive three-win finish under third-year coach Geoff Collins.

Quarterback Jordan Yates passed and threw for touchdowns in his fourth start of the season as Jeff Sims was held out with an undisclosed injury.

Boston College staged a 10-play, 90-yard touchdown drive following Cimaglia's miss. On third and 14 from the Boston College 6, Jurkovec completed a 22-yard pass to tight end Trae Barry to extend the drive. Connor Lytton's second field goal, a 27-yarder, capped the scoring with 25 seconds remaining.

Travis throws for 3 TDs, Florida State holds off BC, 26-23

BOSTON (AP) – Jordan Travis threw for three touchdowns and 251 yards and Florida State stopped Boston College in their own territory in the final two minutes for a 26-23 victory on Saturday.

A week after rallying from an eight-point deficit in the final five minutes for a victory over rival Miami, the Seminoles (5-6, 4-4 Atlantic Coast Conference) rolled to a 23-point lead before holding on to move a victory away from becoming bowl eligible.

Travis completed 20-of-34 passes with no interceptions, connecting with three different receivers for scores.

Coming off his five-touchdown day last Saturday in a victory at Georgia Tech – three rushing and two throwing – BC QB Phil Jurkovec went 10 of 24 for 148 yards with a TD and one INT. He carried 17 times for 59 yards with a score. Pat Garwo III had a scoring run for the Eagles (6-5, 2-5).

The Seminoles led 19-3 at halftime and scored on the initial drive of the second half when Malik McClain made a leaping grab of Travis' pass in the back of the end zone. BC then scored two TDs – failing on a two-point conversion on the first – in just over 3 ½ minutes early in the fourth, slicing it to 26-23 on Jurkovec's 36-yard TD pass to Zay Flowers.

BC converted a fourth-and-2 from their 43 with just over 4 ½ minutes left, but Akeem Dent picked off Jurkovec's desperation pass as the QB was falling to the ground under pressure at the Seminoles' 25 on a fourth-and-8 with 1:42 left.

Florida State pressured, hit or sacked Jurkovec nearly every time he dropped back to pass in the opening half, limiting the Eagles to just 95 total yards.

On the Seminoles' second possession of the game, Travis found Ontario Wilson with a 16-yard scoring strike to make it 7-0.

No. 21 Wake Forest beats BC 41-10, will play for ACC title

BOSTON (AP) – Wake Forest coach Dave Clawson had no complaints about sharing the screen on his postgame video call.

"Say hello to our new friend," he said, holding up the ACC's Atlantic Division trophy after the No. 21 Demon Deacons beat Boston College 41-10 to advance to the conference title game.

Sam Hartman threw for three touchdowns and ran for another on Saturday as the Demon Deacons earned the right to play Pittsburgh next weekend for the Atlantic Coast Conference championship.

It would be Wake Forest's first ACC title since 2006, which was also the only other time in more than a century of football that it has won 10 or more games.

While North Carolina State hoped for a BC win that would deliver the division crown to the Wolfpack, the Demon Deacons opened an early 14-0 lead and scored the last 24 points of the game.

With the backups in for a few final kneel-downs, Wake Forest players and coaches hugged on the sidelines before taking their celebration to the field. Clawson received the requisite ice water bath, then the players slapped hands with the fans behind their bench before posing for pictures in front of the goalposts and scoreboard.

Hartman ran it in from 7 yards out midway through the first quarter and made it 14-0 on a 33-yard pass to A.T. Perry. It was 17-10 late in the second when Brandon Sebastian intercepted Hartman in the end zone, but BC went three-and-out and then Wake Forest scored on Hartman's 7-yard pass to Perry just before halftime.

BC (6-6, 2-6) ran off four three-and-outs in the second half – interrupted only by an interception. Wake Forest extended its lead with a field goal, a 3-yard run by Christian Turner that made it 34-10 and Hartman's 2-yard pass to Blake Whiteheart.

1940 COTTON BOWL

Clemson 6
Boston College 3
Jan. 1, 1940 | Dallas, Texas

Frank Leahy came to Boston College in 1939, succeeding the immortal Gil Dobie, and immediately declared, "I did not come to BC to fail." Nor did the 29-year old protégé of Knute Rockne, who had tutored Fordham's mighty Seven Blocks of Granite.

Leahy's team was ranked 11th nationally when it faced Clemson in the Cotton Bowl – the first New England team to participate in a bowl game in 20 years. The Eagles took a 3-0 lead on Alex Lukachik's 36-yard field goal, but Clemson roared right back on its next possession, and Charley Timmons ran for a score.

That was it for the day. Banks McFadden knocked down three Charley O'Rourke passes in the end zone in the fourth quarter, and BC drove to the Clemson 8-yard line late in the game but failed to score.

1941 SUGAR BOWL

Boston College 19
Tennessee 13
Jan. 1, 1941 | New Orleans, La.

In head coach Frank Leahy's second year, the Eagles went unbeaten in 11 games and finished with their highest national ranking, thanks to a gritty come-from-behind 19-13 win over Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl.

The Volunteers, who had not lost a regular season game in three years, led 7-0 at the half, but Joe Zabliski's recovery of a blocked punt set up Harry Connolly's game-tying touchdown and extra point in the third quarter.

Tennessee came back to take a 13-7 lead, but Mike Holovak ended a 60-yard drive when he scored BC's second touchdown. However, Leahy elected to run Holovak for the extra point which was stopped. The score remained tied at 13. Don Curri van blocked a UT field goal in the fourth quarter and started BC on its winning drive.

1943 ORANGE BOWL

Alabama 37
Boston College 21
Jan. 1, 1943 | Miami, Fla.

This contest was a wild affair, as Boston College took a 14-0 lead on two of Mike Holovak's three touchdowns on the day. Holovak's first touchdown came on a 65-yard run and his second on a 35-yard sweep.

After Alabama fought back for a 19-14 lead, Holovak scored his third touchdown of the day on a two-yard plunge. Harry Connolly's extra-point gave the Eagles a 21-19 lead. By this time, injuries had begun to pile up for BC (Mario Gianelli, one of the team's best linemen, broke his toe getting dressed for the game and never played), and Alabama took the lead for good on a field goal. The Crimson Tide soon took a 28-21 advantage and the Eagles missed their tying chance when they were unable to score from the 8-yard line in the fourth quarter.

1983 LIBERTY BOWL

Boston College 18
Dec. 29, 1983 | Memphis, Tenn.

Despite bitter 11-degree temperatures, Doug Flutie shined once again in postseason action, completing 16-of-37 passes for 287 yards and three touchdowns. The Fighting Irish, however, also tallied three TDs and emerged a one-point victor.

Scott Gieselmann grabbed a three-yard touchdown flip from Flutie midway through the third quarter, but the contest was a deadlocked defensive struggle for the remainder of the evening. With 1:08 left on a fourth-down situation on Notre Dame's 35, Flutie's toss intended for Joe Giaquinto fell incomplete.

Tailback Troy Stradford was the Eagles' leading ground gainer with 51 yards on 16 carries. Flutie, however, was named the game's Most Valuable Player for his aerial efforts.

1985 COTTON BOWL

Boston College 45
Houston 28
Jan. 1, 1985 | Dallas, Texas

Four months to the day after the memorable 1984 season began, it ended with the Eagles' first postseason Bowl victory in 44 years. Before 56,522 (67,381 paid) at the frigid Cotton Bowl (32 windy, drizzly degrees) and another CBS-TV national audience, Heisman Trophy winner Doug Flutie (13 for 37, 180 yards) threw two scoring passes in the first quarter to boost BC to a 17-7 lead.

Kelvin Martin's 63-yard touchdown grab to open the scoring was the longest aerial connection of the year for the Eagles. Flutie would add his Cotton Bowl-record third touchdown pass later in the contest. Houston trimmed two touchdowns off BC's 31-14 halftime lead before the Eagle ground game asserted itself.

Georgia 24
Dec. 23, 1986 | Tampa, Fla.

Eagle quarterback Shawn Halloran connected with wide receiver Kelvin Martin on a five-yard touchdown pass with just 32 seconds remaining in the game to give Boston College a thrilling 27-24 victory over the Georgia Bulldogs in the first Hall of Fame Bowl game in Tampa, Fla.

The perfectly timed touchdown toss capped a sparkling 76-yard drive that began with 2:38 left on the clock and Georgia holding a 24-20 edge.

The Eagles started the game in high gear, with Halloran picking apart the Bulldogs' defense for 22 completions in his first 31 attempts – good for 242 yards, a touchdown and a 20-7 lead at intermission. Georgia roared back in the second half, however, outscoring the Eagles 17-0 until BC's magical final drive.

1993 HALL OF FAME BOWL

Tennessee 38
Boston College 23
Jan. 1, 1993 | Tampa, Fla.

The first bowl appearance in six years fell short of a success as a 17-point scoring blitz by Tennessee in the third quarter broke open a close game and gave the Vols a lead that could not be matched.

BC had outstanding performances from tight end Pete Mitchell, who set a Hall of Fame Bowl receiving record with nine catches for 100 yards (and a pair of scores), and from quarterback Glenn Foley, who clicked on 23-of-46 passes for 268 yards and threw a pair of two-point conversions in addition to the two TD passes to Mitchell.

BC rallied with Foley's 17-yard TD pass to Mitchell and Darnell Campbell's seven-yard scoring dash, each of which was followed by a successful two-point conversion play, but the clock ran out on BC's closing effort.

Boston College 31
Virginia 13
Jan. 1, 1994 | Miami, Fla.

Glenn Foley put on a masterful passing show in leading the Eagles to the Carquest Bowl championship. The Virginia Cavaliers gave BC an early scare, picking off Foley's second pass of the game and converting it into a touchdown and a 7-0 advantage, 1:05 into the game.

But Foley would make few mistakes in the ensuing minutes of play. In his final collegiate appearance, Foley would go on to set eight Bowl records, passing for 391 yards and three touchdowns and earning himself the game's Most Valuable Player award.

Overall, the Eagle offense was splendid. When the game ended, BC had gained a whopping 557 yards – nearly seven yards per play.

1994 JEEP ALOHA BOWL

Boston College 12
Kansas State 7
Dec. 25, 1994 | Honolulu, Hawaii

In a spectacular defensive effort, the Eagles stopped eighth-ranked Kansas State cold – completely erasing the Wildcats' ground attack (minus 61 yards on the day) and sacking quarterback Chad May eight times. The Kansas State offense could not manage a touchdown in the game; the Wildcats' only points came on a blocked punt, which was recovered in the end zone.

Kansas State scored on the blocked punt on the last play of the first quarter, and both defenses dueled in front of an ABC-TV national audience before the Eagles were able to muster another long drive in the fourth period that culminated in David Gordon's 35-yard field goal with 1:18 left.

The key play of that successful late drive was a 46-yard pass from Mark Hartsell to wide receiver Kenyatta Watson.

2000 JEEP ALOHA BOWL

Boston College 31
Arizona State 17
Dec. 25, 2000 | Honolulu, Hawaii

Boston College put on a second-half offensive explosion to defeat Arizona State by a 31-17 score in the 2000 Jeep Aloha Bowl. Though Arizona State jumped on the board first, BC was quick to respond with 10 straight points for a 10-7 lead after one quarter. Senior running back Cedric Washington marched into the end zone just 1:07 after the ASU score on a 10-yard run.

Leading 24-10 to start the fourth quarter, senior linebacker Ryan Burch intercepted a pass attempt by Griffin Goodman. Washington took over, and after four rushes that gained 28 yards, he ran the final 10 yards into the end zone for the Eagles' final score of the day and a 31-10 lead. ASU added a late score.

Dec. 31, 2003 | San Francisco, Calif.

Boston College celebrated New Year's Eve in the City by the Bay by winning its fourth consecutive bowl game, a 35-21 victory over Colorado State in the Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl.

All-time rushing leader Derrick Knight dominated the opening drive and scored from the five to give the Eagles a 7-0 lead with 12:14 left. A 40-yard Bradlee Van Pelt scoring pass with seven minutes remaining in the third trimmed BC's lead to 21-14, but a Bobby Stancil interception led to a Paul Peterson-to-Larry Lester 19-yard TD pass to give the Eagles some breathing room and a 28-14 lead.

After an unsuccessful fourth down play for Colorado State, Knight iced the win, marching 28 yards to the end zone.

2004 CONTINENTAL TIRE BOWL

Boston College 37
North Carolina 24
Dec. 30, 2004 | Charlotte, N.C.

In his first game back from a broken finger, senior quarterback Paul Peterson threw for 236 yards as the Eagles won a fifth straight bowl game, beating North Carolina 37-24. Redshirt freshman Andre Callender carried the ball 26 times for 174 yards and a touchdown in a balanced offensive effort.

UNC opened the third with a Connor Barth field goal to take a 24-21 lead. As the third quarter came to an end, Callender gained 38 yards to the UNC 10, setting up a one-yard touchdown plunge three plays later that gave BC a 27-24 lead.

The Eagle defense forced a punt on UNC's next drive and BC took over with good field position. On fourth down at the UNC 21, Ryan Ohliger faked the field goal and ran for the score, avoiding would-be Tar Heel tacklers on the way and stunning the crowd as the Eagles took a 34-24 lead. BC's final points came when William Troost hit an 18-yard field goal with 4:09 left.

Boston College 13
Jan. 9, 2011 | San Francisco, Calif.

Rishard Matthews caught a touchdown pass and returned a punt for another score, and No. 13 Nevada used its best defensive game of the season to beat Boston College 20-13.

Colin Kaepernick threw for 192 yards and a touchdown for the Wolf Pack (13-1), who snapped a four-game bowl losing streak by tying a school record for wins in a season, set when it played in what used to be Division I-AA.

The win was sealed by Khalid Wooten's interception on the final drive of the game for the Eagles (7-6).

The game matched BC's top-ranked rushing defense against Nevada's high-powered pistol attack that was third in the nation in rushing. The defense won that battle, holding the Wolf Pack to a season-low 114 yards on the ground, including just 22 for Kaepernick.

Freshman Chase Rettig completed 14-of-34 passes for 121 yards and two interceptions. Boston College played without leading rusher Montel Harris, who got hurt in pregame warmups.

2013 ADVOCARE v100 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Arizona 42
Boston College 19
Dec. 31, 2013 | Shreveport, La.

First-year coach Steve Addazio said Boston College had plenty to be proud of after a remarkable turnaround season that included a return to postseason play after a 2-10 record in 2012.

Not much went right for the Eagles in a 42-19 loss to Arizona in the Advocare V100 Bowl. Boston College running back Andre Williams, the Doak Walker Award winner and Heisman finalist who came into the game with 2,102 yards rushing, was held to 75 yards and one touchdown in his final game.

BC (7-6) kept things tight early, trailing just 7-6 midway through the second quarter. But Arizona scored two quick touchdowns just before halftime to take a 21-6 lead and the Eagles could never mount another challenge.

BC didn't score a touchdown until Williams' four-yard run early in the fourth quarter. Senior Alex Amidon established a Boston College career record for receptions (191) and receiving yards (2,800) in the game, recording 10 receptions for 129 yards against the Wildcats. Senior place-kicker Nate Freese connected on both field-goal attempts to conclude the season a perfect 20-for-20.

2018 SERVPRO FIRST RESPONDER BOWL

Boston College
Boise State
Dec. 26, 2018 | Dallas, Texas

The SERVPRO First Responder Bowl between Boston College and No. 23 Boise State was canceled due to thunderstorms in the area of the Cotton Bowl. The game kicked off at 12:30 p.m. local time and entered a lightning delay at 1 p.m. After a one-hour and 20-minute delay, bowl officials called off the game due to severe weather.

Despite BC leading 7-0 through nearly 10 minutes of play, the game was officially a no contest and statistics did not count. AJ Dillon scored on the Eagles' first possession; a 19-yard touchdown run. He had 33 yards on six carries before the game abruptly ended with 5:08 left on the clock in the first quarter. Anthony Brown was 4-for-6 passing for 54 yards, while Kobay White made two catches for 35 yards.

Boston College ended the season at 7-5 overall after making its third consecutive bowl game and fifth in six years under head coach Steve Addazio. The Eagles remain 14-12 all-time in their bowl history.
